

Hello MERAC members,

The next meeting of MERAC will take place next Wednesday, July 12, in Columbia. Specific location details will be forthcoming with the agenda.

Below you will find a preliminary list of agenda items for the upcoming meeting. Please email me any additional agenda items no later than Friday morning, July 7. I will be leaving for a conference on Saturday morning, and Laurie Hathman of Rockhurst University has agreed to chair the MERAC meeting in my absence. I would like to have all details of the meeting completed for Laurie before I leave.

Here are the agenda items at present:

Introduction of new members

Election of 2006-2007 Chair

LSO update

Policy/guideline for federated searches and limited shared simultaneous users

Compile short list for Database Cafeteria offers

Database Cafeteria Survey to Clusters

Videoconference information needed

Next Meetings (videoconference)

Thank you!
