1. The meeting was called to order at 2:30 pm by the chair, Jill Mahoney.
2. Old Business
  - A. Approval of last meeting's minutes was tabled, as minutes had not yet been provided.
3. New Business
  - A. Nina asked if we had any news to share with the group on Sierra. Jill said it was a more attractive interface, and that her institution would be happier when customization would be more readily accessible.
4. Library reports
  - A. Lincoln – Lois reported that a new Lincoln president would be starting in June. Page Library's director, Jerome Offord, has been spending time in the president's office while the search for the new president was undertaken. He will be back in the library after the transition to the new president has been completed.
  - B. Columbia College – no report.
  - C. State Library – Sarah reported that the State Library is undergoing reorganization. She will notify Arthur PSC when any applicable news is shared with her.
  - D. Stephens – Nina reported that the current date was the last day of finals, and that graduation ceremonies would be taking place that evening and the next. Also, Stephens will be refreshing their library space with new furniture and tinted windows.

- E. William Woods – Jill reported that they have recently undertaken a library survey. They are getting mixed reports. They are also reconfiguring the space in their library by combining the reference and circulation desks and putting computers in the space vacated. William Woods also recently met a goal in their Imagine campaign, raising $8.1 million for a new row of sorority housing and a multicultural center.
- F. Westminster – Kat reported that the semester has ended at Westminster. She also mentioned that a new library program is now being offered at the local homeless shelter.

- 5. The next meeting will be set by the next chair, Lucia D'Agostino, who was absent from this meeting.
- 6. Meeting adjourned at 4:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted by Sarah Irwin, May 31, 2013.
