

Arthur Cluster
Technical Services Committee
Serials records with multiple volumes

Serials which do not circulate and have both a check in record and item records should have the items suppressed and the holdings information and the call number in the check in record. This will reduce the number of screens to display and reduce the load time. An example is the Humanities Index.